

Tongues for Believers: Bonus Prayer CD

Let the Prayer Language Begin to Flow

He prays in tongues:

Hringa rastoriya tukramarakras turechiya kuri madhari tiko.
Mea unskuri tukratu ari sura nduratu akrasu acchadari masa.

Let it flow.

He continues praying in tongues:

Yundora kriyasa kuri matukuramasa.

Let it begin to flow.

He continues:

Mea rastaha.

Of course, it begins as an act of your will.

Yundora nduriya ti akrasa.

Let it begin to flow.

Mea rastu dhikrasadhimi dhikrasu.
Muramo dhikran su dhikrasya tukyatele.

Let it begin to flow. Let it begin to flow.

Tell your body to shut up. You are in prayer now.

Let it flow.

Have Your way, Heavenly Father. Let it flow.

Tell your body to shut up. You are in prayer now.

Let it flow.

Yes, let it flow. Let it flow.

Prayer Changes the Person Before It Changes the Circumstance

Sometimes you think finances are your problem, but He prays you out of what caused you to get into that situation.

He changes you. He edifies you. He changes your character. He builds you up in God. He makes a winner out of you. He uses you.

Do not dare stop.

When you delight yourself like this in the Lord, He grants you the desires of your heart.

Prayer is the best thing your life has to offer.

This is where the Word and the understanding of the Word merge with your life. This is where God-kind, real faith is generated through intimate fellowship with Jesus.

The faith that changes things causes your life to turn around.

This is where the Word and the understanding of the Word merge with your life.

This is where the Word merges with your life.

This is where the Word merges with your life.

Prayer Brings the Power for Change

Pray, and then comes the power for change in other areas.

My life has objective. It has objective.

I have decided to win.
