

A Greater Than Solomon Is Here

Go to 2 Chronicles, chapter 1, and then go to 1 Kings, chapter 10, and mark that.

There are great things in My presence, saith the Lord, that you only need to enter into. Thank You, Jesus. For the key is in My Spirit, in My power. And the preparation time for this hour is the ministry of the Holy Spirit at all times. So find the path and yield, and you will be blessed indeed.

Hallelujah.

The Call to Riches Begins With Becoming Last in This Kingdom

A few months ago, maybe a month and a half, He pulled me in the room and said, "I am going to teach you some things about riches."

I think it was on a Wednesday night that I began to express it. As He continued to pull me in this room, I did not know what to call it. Some of the terms He started passing through my spirit were, "The first shall be last, and the last shall be first," and, "Many are called, but few are chosen."

I understood then that many, many, many are called to this kind of ministry, to this kind of operation in God, the kind He is talking about, but very, very, very few are chosen.

We found out that when He said the first will be last, He meant those who make themselves first in this kingdom will be last in the next one. But those who make themselves last here, which is servant of all, become first in the next. Many are called. Few are chosen.

So He pulled me in this room and started giving me glimpses into several kinds of ministries. The one He wanted to teach me on was riches.

He said, "I want you to understand some things about riches."

When He pulled me in, I did not know what to call it except "gospel entrepreneurship," maybe the separation in Romans 12 to the simplicity of giving. I know now that the simplicity of giving is when the Holy Spirit is able to get the trumpet out of your hand when you give.

Gospel Entrepreneurship Stands Equal in Reward With the Preaching Gift

I understand that God, by His grace, is able to finish up with my ministry when He does it. I am going to see what I have seen in my spirit through this whole progression.

Even though I have the privilege of tearing hell up with my gift, forcing Satan to turn loose of people through deliverances and wheelchairs and all of that, I know this is inbred into me by my new birth. I know. I am not wondering. I know.

But in this ministry of entrepreneurship, the devil would be just as intensely mad at the person who has entered into the ministry of gospel entrepreneurship and can actually pay for the meeting as he would be at me for being able to bring revival anywhere on that scale.

Because in eternity, you and I will stand shoulder to shoulder, equal to equal, in the reward. There are many members in the body, and not all members have the same office. Because all the members are part of one body, every member is a measure, but it is part of a whole. The closer these measures function together as one, the more they make one whole. That causes the greatest effectiveness.

We will stand shoulder to shoulder in the reward. It will be a day to be reckoned with. It will be an incredible day.

The Rich Young Ruler Could Not Let His Whole Life Become Seed

The first place He brought me to, of course, was, "The first will be last, and the last will be first. Many are called, but few are chosen."

So I backed up far enough to get the whole context, according to the laws of meditation, of what He was trying to get over to me about riches.

When the rich young ruler came to Him, and I am reiterating this because you must understand it for the next step, he threw himself down and said, "What must I do to inherit eternal life?"

Jesus said, "You know the commandments."

He named them.

The young man said, "I have kept these from my youth up."

Jesus said, "You are old covenant. You are saved. You have it. How would you like to be perfect? How would you like to be perfect?"

He said, "Go and sell what you have, give to the poor, and lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven that wax not old. Then you come, pick up your cross, and follow Me."

He went away exceedingly sorrowful, exceedingly, because he could not do this. He could not do it.

The apostles were so amazed at what had just happened that they cried, "My God, who can be saved?"

Jesus said, "With God all things are possible."

Peter spoke up, "Well, we left all. We left it all to follow You. What do we receive?"

This is when He told him that anyone who has forsaken houses and lands and mothers and brothers and sisters for His sake and the gospel's will receive in this lifetime a hundredfold of the same. Innumerable multitudes of families, mothers, brothers, sisters, and children will be inherited into the kingdom because of your ministry. Innumerable. Hundreds and hundreds of folds.

He said, "Peter, you twelve, in the regeneration, in the Millennium, when I sit upon the throne of My glory, you will sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel."

But for everyone else who has forsaken all, they will inherit this. Hundreds of folds. They will so incredibly increase the kingdom in houses and lands because they forsook all to follow Jesus.

Then at the end of that statement, He made this incredible statement: "Many that are first will be last, and the last will be first."

He was saying that those who have made themselves first in this kingdom, like the rich young ruler, just cannot do it. He just could not do it. He wanted the wealth to serve himself. He just could not do it.

Those who make themselves first in this kingdom will be last in the next, meaning the Millennium. But those who make themselves last in this kingdom, which means servants, literal slaves, will be first in the next. What makes them first in the next? They literally forsook all to increase the kingdom by hundreds of thousands of folds of families, mothers, fathers, children, houses, and lands. That procured them an incredible place in the kingdom to come.

But the rich young ruler had great wealth, and he could not.

To help you understand a slave, being young and incredibly wealthy, he probably inherited from his family. Jesus did not just ask for wealth he would have earned. He asked for all the wealth he had. That meant every hour, every business decision, every act of wisdom leading up to that point. Suddenly he would use it to increase the family of God. Every hour he had committed in his whole life would now serve the gospel.

He literally became a slave, but he could not do it. He could not do it.

The following instruction was, "Pick up your cross and follow Me." And you might as well know, the cross is where the old man is put to death.

Now follow Me.

God's Prosperity Starts Where You Are Willing to Lose It

Walking in the carnal man, where most of us walk, we cannot see past this life. We cannot even see into it.

The rich young ruler did not know that if he had gone ahead, picked up his cross, and started following Jesus, that mortification would have taken place. When it began to take place, it would not have been a matter of what he gave up. They would have had to use a team of horses just to try to hold a person like that back from running toward anything he could do to inherit more of the kingdom, not giving it up, but gaining more of it.

Then the startling revelation hit me that God's prosperity really does not begin for you but at that level.

People say, "Well, those verses were designed to make us rich. Look, when you get a hundredfold return..."

The rich young ruler was not looking for wealth. He already had it. What he did not have was God's prosperity.

God's prosperity starts at the level where you can lose it. That is when you can gain it. When you come to the place where you are willing to give it for the increase of the kingdom of God, that is the level where God's kind of prosperity begins.

And, buddy, His prosperity will hold up under any circumstance. I do not care if it is depression, oppression, or recession. I do not care what comes. When you have God's prosperity, it will hold up under any circumstance.

I do not mind telling you, I began to seek Him for the wisdom to learn to walk that way. Just last night He told me my mind was very narrow and lived in a box.

I said, "Well, You are very subtle. You are very subtle, Lord."

I began to seek Him on what would qualify this, and He began to come back with wisdom. He began to talk to me about wisdom.

David and Solomon Wanted Wisdom to Judge God's People and Wealth to Build God's House

I knew Solomon was wise, but then I began to notice that whenever prosperity or needs were mentioned, God seemed to link Solomon there somehow with His glory and used Solomon's wealth to tell you that you really do not need to be concerned about what you eat, wear, or drink.

He used him so many times. The Queen of Sheba came to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and Jesus said, "A greater than Solomon is here."

I thought, I guess I am going to have to have another look at this. If the keys to gospel entrepreneurship are in wisdom, then I have got to know what causes it to increase.

Let us begin here, with the first verse. I do not know how long I am going to make it.

King David and his son, King Solomon, both did two things, two things, that caused David to go from a shepherd boy herding sheep to one of the greatest kings Israel had ever seen, and Solomon to go, in only two generations from shepherding, to the wisest, wealthiest, most powerful king that had ever been in this earth.

Two things. These are the two things.

First, they wanted God's wisdom to judge the people of God righteously.

Second, they wanted to build a house for God to dwell in.

Now, running ahead just for a moment, I do not mind telling you the wisdom that comes down from above is pure, peaceable, gentle, easy to be entreated, without hypocrisy, and yields the peaceable fruits of righteousness in those who are exercised thereby. I do not mind telling you that wisdom comes from His Word.

But I also do not mind telling you that the house you and I are building, the house you and I are building for God to dwell in, is the body of Christ.

It is no wonder He says that when you can come to the place where you can forsake all to increase the family of God, then you have sought His wisdom, and He will give you His wealth.

Solomon's Thousand Offerings Opened the Door to Wisdom and Wealth

Let us begin with the first verse:

And Solomon the son of David was strengthened in his kingdom, and the Lord his God was with him, and magnified him exceedingly.

Then Solomon spoke unto all Israel, to the captains of thousands and hundreds, to the judges, and to every governor in all Israel, the chief of the fathers. Solomon and all the congregation with him went to the high place that was at Gibeon, for there was the tabernacle of the congregation of God, which Moses the servant of the Lord had made in the wilderness.

But the ark of God David had brought up from Kirjath-jearim to the place David had prepared for it, for he had pitched a tent for it in Jerusalem.

Moreover, the brazen altar that Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, he put before the tabernacle of the Lord, and Solomon and the congregation sought unto it.

Solomon went up there to the brazen altar before the Lord, which was at the tabernacle of the congregation, and offered, now notice this, a thousand burnt offerings upon it.

A thousand burnt offerings. I can hardly imagine that. But I can say this: all you have to do is say, "In the name of Jesus." I can hardly stand it.

A thousand burnt offerings upon it.

In the night, God appeared unto Solomon and said unto him, "Ask what I shall give thee."

That reminds me of Brother Dhinakaran, when Jesus first caught him up into heaven in the presence of God. The first thing God said to him was, "What do you want? What do you want?"

He says every time he goes into His presence, God says, "What do you want?"

One time, he was in intercession for all the needs in India, and he started to ask for the gifts of the workings of miracles and all that. The Holy Ghost, who was with him, interceded very quickly for him and said, "No, no. Do not ask for the gifts. Tell Him you want Jesus. Tell Him you want Jesus."

"What do you want? What shall I give thee?"

Solomon said unto God, "Thou hast showed great mercy unto David my father, and hast made me reign in his stead. Now, O Lord God, let Thy promise unto David my father be established, for Thou hast made me king over a people like the dust of the earth in multitude. Give me now wisdom. Give me now wisdom and knowledge, that I may go out and come in before this people, for who can judge Thy people that are so great?"

God said to Solomon, "Because this was in thine heart, and thou hast not asked for riches, wealth, or honor, nor for the life of thine enemies, neither yet hast thou asked for long life, but hast asked wisdom and knowledge for thyself, that thou mayest judge My people over whom I have made thee king, wisdom and knowledge is granted unto thee. I will give thee riches, wealth, and honor, such as none of the kings have had that have been before thee, neither shall there any after thee have the like."

Then Solomon came from his journey to the high place at Gibeon, to Jerusalem, from before the tabernacle of the congregation, and reigned over Israel.

Now notice the second chapter, first verse. God made him wealthy, but notice what he wanted to do with this wealth:

And Solomon determined to build a house for the name of the Lord, and a house for his kingdom.

Then he begins into the wealth, the building, and the specifications that God had communed in his heart for the house he was going to build Him.

It amazes me that this house is only a type. When Jesus said, "A greater than Solomon is here," the house we are building for Him is a greater house.

Tell me, if you ask for the same things, what makes you think He would not pour the same kind of things out upon you? When I began to get into the wealth of Solomon, that is when God said, "Son, your mind is in a narrow box."

Solomon's Temple Foreshadows a House Built From All Nations

Go on over to 1 Kings, chapter 10, because I am laying a foundation.

Here is something interesting I want you to keep in your heart. This is a shadow and a type. When Solomon began to build his tabernacle, he contracted with the artisans and the children of strangers. They actually came and did the work on the house. That tells you that the house we are building, we are also building with the children of all nations.

Amen.

Something else may interest you. After twenty years, when he completed the tabernacle, Solomon and the whole congregation prayed over its dedication. They sacrificed twenty-two thousand oxen and twenty thousand sheep. Forty-two thousand sacrifices they burned on the altars that day.

The glory of the Lord fell, and the fire fell into the temple. Not even the priests could go into the temple by reason of the glory that was there.

When Solomon prayed the dedication for this temple, sometime I would like to take that prayer apart. But when I read it and understood the first layer of it by the power of the Holy Spirit, I fainted inside and got weak.

One of the things he said so moved me was this verse...

Hang in with me, folks. I am fading. Hallelujah, Jesus. Worship with me for a minute.

See, I determined as I enter into this place with Him that I would follow Him as closely as I could in the services. Unfortunately, the first part of that seems to be that when He begins to pull me off, I still do not hear the Holy Spirit until He is close enough to me that He has to grab me off of it. If I could hear Him when He was way back here instead of here, then I could make ready for the change before He got here.

But I can say this: yes, sir.

In one year of Solomon's ministry, twenty-five tons of gold came in, which is roughly three hundred twenty million dollars at today's prices. That was just the gold.

He asked wisdom, and God gave it to him. With it, He gave him riches to build His house. Three hundred twenty million dollars, just the gold, not counting the spices, the ivory, or the trade.

In fact, silver was so plentiful that they esteemed it as stones and piled it up. Gold was so plentiful that they did not even inventory the cups in the king's house. All the world came to him to seek out his wisdom. God said there was none like him.

If it is God's house I am building, and I seek His wisdom, then it is through His wisdom that the wealth comes.

It really looks like there was a stipulation here: the wealth comes to build His house. Now that is their covenant. This is mine.

Jesus Is Greater Than Solomon Because He Gives Access to a Lit Spirit

I finally got to take the first step into why Jesus said, "A greater than Solomon is here."

I knew He was greater. You knew He was greater. He was God. But I did not understand the fullness of why He made a statement like that. When God opened up the first step, my God, verses I thought I had known for five hundred years, for twenty years...

Now I am hoping He took me off of that to put you onto this.

Go on over to Luke, chapter 11, verse 29.

Hallelujah. I am going to build my temple. Hallelujah. I am going to build His.

Yes, sir. Thank You. Yes, sir. Yes, sir. Yes, sir.

Follow me close.

And when the people were gathered thick together, He began to say, This is an evil generation: they seek a sign; and there shall no sign be given it, but the sign of Jonah the prophet.

For as Jonah was a sign unto the Ninevites, so shall also the Son of man be to this generation.

The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and condemn them: for she came from the utmost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, behold, a greater than Solomon is here.

The men of Nineveh shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and, behold, a greater than Jonah is here.

In the thirty-third verse, it looks like He suddenly changed the subject, but I can assure you, my friend, He did not.

Suddenly He says:

No man, when he hath lighted a candle, putteth it in a secret place, neither under a bushel, but on a candlestick, that they which come in may see the light.

The light of the body is the eye: therefore when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light; but when thine eye is evil, thy body also is full of darkness.

This is the first level where the Holy Spirit was able to get my understanding to.

I understood that Jonah preached to the Ninevites. They heard the message, received it, repented, and were saved. So I understand that. I understand that a greater than Jonah is here. The only sign to the evil generation will be: as Jonah preached to them, I am preaching to you.

I understand that the Queen of Sheba heard about Solomon's wisdom from a far country and journeyed not only to hear it, but you can rest assured she went back to live all the rest of her days in that wisdom. You can rest assured salvation came to her country, as it did to all the countries of the earth that came up to hear the wisdom of Solomon.

"You evil generation, you want a sign? Here is your sign. She came to hear his wisdom, and I am right here with you, and you will not hear Me."

He says that a greater than Solomon is here.

This is what I understood in the first pass: no man, when he has lighted a candle, puts it under a bushel, but on a tabletop. Why is a man given the Word? Is it not to understand? Is a candle brought to be put under a bushel?

I am here, greater than Solomon, and I am giving you the Word. Is the Word given to you not to understand? Or is it like a candle that you put on top of a table and ignite? When you ignite it, it shines light in the whole room, and then you can walk by it.

He said, "A greater than Solomon is here."

That meant that in the Word of God is greater wisdom for building God's house than Solomon ever dreamed. But I have got to have His wisdom to go in and get it out.

I can tell you one thing: hello, praying in tongues.

Suddenly He says, "The light of the body is the eye. Therefore, if thine eye be single, thy whole body is full of light; but if thine eye be evil..."

The light of the body is the eye. What do I use these two organs for? They let light into my body. Without these two organs, I would be walking in darkness. These two organs let light into my body. Therefore I can walk according to that light. I can cross the room.

But He says if your eye is evil, which is impaired all the way to blind, then it lets no light into your body, so you have nothing to walk by.

Of course, I pulled this over into the spiritual realm where we always know it exists. I said, "Look here. The Word is the lamp. When it is lit, it ignites my spirit with illumination and revelation knowledge. I no longer have to walk not with God. The Word gives me access to His wisdom, and I can walk with God because the Word will illuminate me."

That was the first pass I made, and it was a good pass. Every bit of it.

But on this next pass, I was lying back there in my place of aloneness. Sometimes it amazes me how revelation knowledge jumps on a guy. I will be there and not know a thing about it, and the next moment I know everything about it and do not know how I knew. Then I have to go start digging.

Boy, He said something to me.

He said, "Do you want to know what made Me greater than Solomon?"

I am thinking, Son of God, yes. The message You preached, yes. All these things, yes.

But this is what He is talking about that made Him greater: He gave us something Solomon could not. He gave us something King David could not. This is what made Him greater than anyone who had ever lived: the access He gave us to God.

When He said, "The light of the body is the eye," yes, this organ lets light into my body. There would not be any light in my body if this organ was not functioning. Yet He went on to say that if your eye is single, your whole body shall be full of light; but if it is evil, it will be full of darkness.

I thought, if I get a dark eye, I am void of revelation knowledge and cannot see where I am going. If I have eyes that let light in, then I can walk around anything and see exactly where I am going.

I kept going over it and over it, just letting it set in my spirit.

This is when He said, "The candle is your human spirit. The candle is your human spirit."

This is what made Him greater than Solomon. Before He lit your spirit, no light could come in. So when He came and gave you the rebirth, and you were born again, He lit your spirit and gave you access to revelation knowledge, a relationship with Abba and God the Father that no generations before you could ever have.

So I am saying, now, do You mean, is the candle brought to be put under a bushel? No. The light of the body is the eye. Therefore, if my eye is single, the whole body shall be full of light, which means single is a truthful, loving heart with a new nature. Evil, which always took a dark eye, darkness inside, is an unforgiving, hateful heart with no life in it.

He is saying, "A greater than Solomon is here. Is a candle brought to be put under a bushel? No. I have come to light your candle. When I light your candle on the inside, your spirit is going to start to see and be able to commune with God one-on-one through that new nature, because you will have revelation knowledge and understanding that no generations before you have ever had."

Of John, He said there was no greater prophet, yet the least in the kingdom of God is greater than he. Why? Because your candle has been lit. Because you have a new nature. Because you have access to revelation knowledge that exceeds any wisdom Solomon had, because Solomon was unable to communicate with or understand God through a new nature.

That is why, at the end of Solomon's reign, God did not rip the kingdom out of his hands because of the promise He made to his father David. Solomon had seven hundred wives, many of them princesses of kings, and three hundred concubines. God let him alone because of the promise to his father. He said, "If it were not for your father, I would take you off the throne."

But He judged him when Solomon began to worship the goddesses that his wives brought into his house.

You say, "How can a man do that?"

Oh, he can do it all right. This is what Paul was talking about when he said:

I had not known covetousness, except the law had said, Thou shalt not covet.

Then sin took that commandment and slew him by it, because he had a nature that was sin. It is not a question of quitting sinning. I am sin. But I would not have known I was sin until God came along with the law and said, "Stop sinning." Then, when I tried to stop sinning, I could not. That is when I found out I was sin.

Jesus delivered us from that.

He said a greater than Solomon is here because He did not come but to light your candle and open your eyes, so that your spirit would become your eyes and you would have access to revelation knowledge.

So take heed that your eye is single. If your eye is not single, great is your darkness if you run after any other god. But if we follow Him, we have the chance for our whole body to be full of light.

He said, "A greater than Solomon is here."

I want to build His house. I want to build His house.

The True Light Comes to Ignite Every Person Born of God

Let me close with this. John, chapter 1, verse 1.

I said, "Oh Lord, give me some more verses on this. This is pretty heavy."

Begin with the first verse. Here is a single eye: truthful, holy, blameless, clean of heart.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

The same was in the beginning with God.

All things were made by Him; and without Him was not any thing made that was made.

In Him was life; and the life was the light of men.

Is a candle brought, is a candle lit, to be hid under a bushel?

In Him was life; and the life was the light of men.

And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.

He sent a witness:

There was a man sent from God, whose name was John.

The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe.

He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.

That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

Now, for several years, not the last few, I always thought He was talking about God giving light to that little bitty spirit when a person was born and came into the world. See, "That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world."

But He says:

He was in the world, and the world was made by Him, and the world knew Him not.

He came unto His own, and His own received Him not.

But as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His name:

Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

Now, the ninth verse and the thirteenth verse put together say it this way:

That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world... which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

He came into the world to light every man who comes into the world, who is born not of the will of man, of flesh, or of blood, but of God.

Then in the third chapter, He told you how He did it. Nicodemus said, "What?"

Jesus said, "You must be born again."

He said, "That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit."

He said, "You must be born again."

What made Jesus' ministry greater, outside of all those other factors, Son of God and all, was that He was the One who came in to light our candle. He was the One who came in to ignite our spirit, to open our eyes, so we could begin to walk in the revelation knowledge of a new nature.

He said, "A greater than Solomon is here."

The wisdom made available to us exceeds anything Solomon ever walked in, simply because Solomon wanted to build God His house, which was a type. God has called you to build His house.

The two things that brought David and Solomon to the place of the greatest kings, the wisest and wealthiest that ever lived, were these: they asked for wisdom, and because of it He gave them riches and wealth, and then they used it to build God His house.

Now I know I have access. He has lit my candle. Now I know I have access. I have the Holy Spirit. He has given me the supernatural language of tongues that feeds the flame and increases the brightness.

Father, into the border of this old anointing and the new one coming, I am a little inexperienced in crossing over. But I would rather follow You like that than continue to do my own services. So I ask You to put Your hand on them. Thank You for Your miracle-working power that is flowing now to unleash a flame on them so that You may do it.

Thank You, Jesus. Thank You, Jesus.

The Living Sacrifice Presses Past the Outer Court Into Glory

You know, in the Holy of Holies, the priest went in once a year on the Day of Atonement. In the outer court, at the brazen altar, a priest sacrificed, and the people ministered to God.

Solomon offered a thousand rams on the altar, and then God came. That is just ministry in the soul realm. I do not know how many things He wants to deal with in you on the cross. There are a lot of areas of our lives that we just do not give to Him.

I do not know if it was the five hundred fiftieth, the seven hundred eightieth, or the nine hundredth ram he burned. But finally, ministering to his soul, he gained entry into the Holy of Holies, and God came.

There is not only no one who can minister to me like that, but I have offered my body a living sacrifice.

When they moved the ark of the covenant into the finished tabernacle, Solomon sacrificed forty-two thousand. He came. My God, He came. His glory so filled the temple they could not minister in it. The priests could not go in. They could not stand up. All the people, the whole nation of Israel and everybody involved, sacrificed, got down on their faces, and worshiped God.

There is a holy place we are approaching unto. That is where revival is. Nothing the devil has to offer can go in there either. They get set free at the door.

My friend, I do not want to live in the outer court. I am going to hang around the brazen altar and offer ram after ram until I gain access.

This is Jesus' blood. I am the sacrifice. He says to offer your body a living sacrifice. His blood gained me entry. But it is this flesh that I am offering over, not my will but Thine be done.

I want to see the glory of the Holy of Holies.

Amen.
